CVs and cover letters must be submitted using Microsoft Word only. Applications using another programme, such as '.pdf', will not be accepted.

Human Resources Division's experience is that some applicants leave submitting their application until the last day or indeed the last few minutes before a competition deadline. This invariably leads to a number of applications being received late. Applicants are strongly advised to submit their applications as early as possible to avoid any difficulties with applying in time. In the interest of fairness to all applicants, late applications will not be accepted in any circumstances. This policy is strictly applied.

The Selection Process

The selection process will include an interview, the overall focus of which will be to assess each candidate on the basis of their career and experience to date in terms of the requirements/desirable competencies to successfully undertake the job.

While a candidate may meet the eligibility requirements of the competition, if the numbers applying for the position are such that it would not be practical to interview everyone, the Probation Service may decide that a smaller number will be called to the next stage of the selection process. In this respect, the Probation Service provide for the employment of a shortlisting process to select a group who, based on an examination of the application forms, appear to be the most suitable for the position. This is not to suggest that other candidates are necessarily unsuitable or incapable of undertaking the job, rather that there are some candidates, who based on their application, appear to be better qualified and / or have more relevant experience.

An expert board will examine the application forms against agreed shortlisting criteria based on the requirements of the position. The shortlisting criteria may include both the essential and desirable criteria specified for the position. It is therefore in your own interest to provide a detailed and accurate account of your qualifications/ experience in your application.

It is anticipated that competitive interviews will be held as soon as possible after the closing date for receipt of applications. The onus is on candidates to make themselves available for interview at the scheduled time. It is expected to have a HEO Learning & Development panel in place by later this year. While the interview will centre around the skills and competencies set out below candidates should note that the interview will be semi-structured in nature.

Where a formal review has taken place under Section 7 of the Code, you may not seek a further review of the same process under Section 8, other than in the most exceptional circumstances that will be determined by the Commission at its sole discretion.)

- Informal Review: Where possible, and only with the agreement of the candidate, every effort will be made to resolve any issues/complaints by way of an informal process.
- Section 7 review procedures apply in cases where a candidate is unhappy with an action or decision in relation to his/her candidature (but does not believe there was a breach of the Code of Practice).
- Section 8 review procedures apply where a candidate believes that an aspect of the process breached the CPSA's Code of Practice.

Requests for Review

Where a candidate requests a review, they should determine which procedure is appropriate to their circumstances, i.e. Informal or Formal, Section 7 or Section 8. The candidate must submit their request within the timelines specified in the Code of Practice. These timelines are restricted in order to ensure that corrective action can be taken, if necessary, without delaying the process for other candidates. Candidates must clearly set out the grounds for review and specify the relevant Section of the Code. A request for a review may be refused if the candidate cannot support their request.

You are entitled to acknowledgement, within 3 days, of a request for formal review, and the outcome of the review must be provided to you within 25 days of receipt of the request. If it is not possible to complete the review within this time, you will be informed of the status of the review and the reasons for the delay.

It is important, therefore, for you to note that the onus is on you to ensure that you meet the eligibility requirements for the competition before attending for interview.

If you do not meet these essential entry requirements but nevertheless attend for interview you will be putting yourself to unnecessary expense.

Should the person recommended for appointment decline, or having accepted it, relinquish it or if an additional vacancy arises the Board may, at its discretion, select and recommend another person for appointment on the results of this selection process.

A panel may be formed from which future vacancies may be filled from this campaign.

Once a candidate has accepted an offer of appointment their name will be removed from the panel and no further offers of appointment will be made.

Should similar type vacancies arise elsewhere in the Civil Service candidates may be drawn from this competition.

It is not necessary for a candidate to compile a detailed case prior to invoking the review mechanism. The timeframe set out in the CPSA Code cannot be extended for any reason including the provision of feedback.
